The Senators knocked Foster out of the box in the fourth inning and tied the score on shore in the seventh. Boehling was wild throughout.

WAKE FOREST WINS FROM TRINITY BY BIG RALLY
Baptists, in Uphill Fight, Overcome 4 Point Lead and Take Game From Methodists.

WAKE FOREST, N. C., April 17.—Coming up from behind a five-run lead, Wake Forest, in the eighth, won out in the tenth inning to-day, when Beam singled to left field, pulled, tied the score, 4 to 4. In the bottom of the eighth, Beam scored a run, and scored a moment later on Hensley's timely single to center. The score ended: Wake Forest, 7, Trinity, 4.

It was a great victory for the Baptists, and they only won out by a great uphill fight, for after they had scored in their half of the third, Trinity came back the next inning and drove Moore out of the box, scoring six runs. Ellis relieved Moore and held the Methodists safely in hand the rest of the game.

The work of Carlyle at second and at the bat featured for the Baptists, while the work of Root, for Trinity, in left field, stood out prominently. Trinity scored all of its runs in the third inning through a combination of base-on-balls, hits, errors and wild throws.

Moore walked the first three men up, and Trinity scored, when Ellis forced Thorne at the plate. Carver then hit to holding, and two more runners crossed when Davis let Holding's throw home get away from him. Ellis relieved Moore and allowed two more runs.

Wake Forest scored in the third inning on Davis' single, Moore's sacrifice and Carlyle's single. The Baptists added three more in the sixth on Durham's error. Holding's double, Hensley's and Lee's singles and a wild throw to third.

A single by Beam and two costly errors gave the Baptists the tying run in the eighth. Beam sides-tripped to score in the ninth, but both pitchers were invincible. Wake Forest, third in the tenth on Beam's single. Carver's error and Hensley's hit to center. Trinity displayed very little form in the field, and outside of the fourth inning they were unable to do much at the bat. Ellis allowing only two hits the rest of the game.

Summary: Two-base hits—Holding, Flyth. Sacrifice hits—Carlyle, Moore, Carver. Bases on balls—of Moore, 4; of Carlyle, 2. Errors—Durham, 2; Moore, 2; by Ellis, 2; by Root, 2. Left on bases—Wake Forest, 4; Trinity, 3. Doubtful plays—Hittings to Carlyle to holding; Hittings to Carlyle to holding. Umpire, Von. Raleigh. Score, Williams.

GOULD AND HUHN DEFEND TENNIS TITLE WITH EASE
National Doubles Championship Is Won Again for Fourth Successive Year.

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—Jay Gould, New York, and W. H. T. Huhn, Philadelphia, to-day again won the national court tennis doubles amateur championship by defeating Joshua Crane and G. R. Fearing, of Boston, three sets to two. The scores were 6-1, 0-6, 1-6, 6-1, 6-3.

It was the fourth successive time that Gould and Huhn had won the national title in doubles. At the end of the third set the champions were in danger of losing their title. They won the first set easily enough, six to one, but as well as Huhn Crane and Fearing played in the second set, the champions failed to win a single game. In the third set Gould and Huhn were again outplayed by the challengers, and could do no better than with one game. The champions showed a wonderful reversal of form in the fourth set and captured it, six games to one. The fifth set went to nine games, and was the most exciting of all. The title holders lost the first game, and then appeared to become stronger as they took the next three games straight, largely through some wonderful placing by Gould. The games then alternated until the fifth, when Gould and Huhn, playing at top speed and concentrating on Fearing, won the set and match.

Their Reason Was Good.
NEW HAVEN, CONN., April 17.—Prize for a twenty-four hour tennis Johnny Dunne and Freddie Walsh let July 5th were practically abandoned as a result of announcement of the chief of police that he could not permit the light to take place.

GENERALS LOOK FORWARD: GOOD SEASON ON WATER
Boat Crews Get New Equipment, and Are About Ready to Start Training.

LEXINGTON, VA., April 17.—With the coming of spring, the interest in the boat clubs is reviving, both crews having made their call to the river. The Harry Lees turned out on the river Monday, after a winter of rather steady practice on their rowing machine in Newcomb Hall. The Albert Sidneys are rejoicing over the coming of their new machine last week. It was promptly installed on the third floor of the engineering building, and work was started to overcome, as far as possible, the handicap imposed by the river crew's long indoor practice. The Albert Sidneys will take up the river work either this week or next, according to weather conditions.

In material for oarsmen, the Red crew would appear to have the edge over the Blue. Six monogram men—Gleason, Wales, White, Gooch, Leith and Sidneys have returned, while the Albert Sidneys have but twoarsity men of last year—Latture and Manning. Albert Sidneys claim, however, that this difference is largely balanced by the return of four of their strong 1914 second crew—Preston, Humphries, McMillan and Hitt. For the Red, Coxswain Samford alone remains of last year's second. Both clubs report that a good number of promising recruits were revealed in the fall practice and expect like results from the spring call.

JESS WILLARD MUST SOON RECKON WITH JIM COFFEY

Irishman Is Latest Real Sensation in New York Fistic Circles.

BADLY LACKED CARL MORRIS
New Champ Takes Safest Course to Keep Title by Deciding to Go on Stage for Year—Reich Is Also Very Good.

Jess Willard and his boss, Tom Jones, are wise individuals. They picked the psychological moment to jump on Jack Johnson and take his title away, and now they have set up a barrier to prevent any one from taking the title from Jess for a year at least. The latter move is just as wise as the first—from their standpoint. Tom Jones has been charged with originating the latter decision. Possibly he had followed closely the trend of late fistic events and had framed his plans accordingly.

Probably he had heard, or had even seen, those rapidly rising young champions—champion Willard and Al Reich. Undoubtedly if he has seen either of both of the aforementioned gentlemen he has a feeling that Willard is safer out of their company.

Coffey and Reich have both stamped themselves as two of the greatest performers in the history of the sport. Whitey Race started to scour the city for a white-skinned young man capable of battering the championship of Jack Johnson's done.

During the last few months Coffey especially has caused a furore in New York by his sensational performance. Possessing a wonderful kick in either mitt, great weight, and in spite of that, unusual agility, he has been picked as the toughest challenger for the title that confronts Willard.

Robert Schang began his catching career as a member of the team, which is the leading ball club at Wales Center. He worked up quite a reputation around his home district, and his popularity led his younger brother, Wally, to aspire in the direction of the major leagues. Wally practiced with Bobby and soon induced the shop team in the town of Crockett to try him out. Ruycroft shortly became in need of a regular catcher, and Wally was placed upon the roster. He made good with a rush. Meanwhile, Bobby has developed steadily, and finally was signed up with

With Coffey and Reich in the field it is a certainty that Willard's title is a hundred times safer if he says out of the ring for a year than it would be if he consented to take on Coffey and Reich.

SCHANGS PREFER CATCHING TO ANY JOB ON DIAMOND

Four of the Family Are in Game, and Each One Is a Backstop.

TWO ARE IN BIG LEAGUES
Wally, the Younger Brother, Flew Highest, Going to Athletics—Bobby Is Doing Good Work for Pittsburgh Pirates.

Catching appears to be contagious in the Schang family, and every one of the four Schang boys is a baseball backstop. Friends of the Schangs sometimes declare it to be bad that girls do not take to the game as boys, for with the five Schang sisters, an entire team could be chosen, says the Cleveland Plain-Dealer.

However, the four young men are not the only section of the household to enter into the great national pastime, for the father, too, had his day upon the diamond, and he did not advance as far as fast company, he ranked as a star for many miles around his little home town in old New York State.

Therefore, it stands to reason that catching is running among the Schang boys, and they, doubtless, caught it from their daddy. Their home is on a farm near Wales Center, N. Y., and Wales Center is located seven miles from East Aurora, while East Aurora is situated twenty-five miles from the city of Buffalo.

Schangs, the speedy little Pirate backstop with the sensational whip, is the oldest of the boys. He was twenty-six years old on December 1, 1912. He is nearly four years older than his brother, Wally, who works behind the bat for the Philadelphia Athletics.

Robert Schang began his catching career as a member of the team, which is the leading ball club at Wales Center. He worked up quite a reputation around his home district, and his popularity led his younger brother, Wally, to aspire in the direction of the major leagues. Wally practiced with Bobby and soon induced the shop team in the town of Crockett to try him out. Ruycroft shortly became in need of a regular catcher, and Wally was placed upon the roster.
